Come along with Clover on her first day of school!

Kids will make a great new friend on the page when they meet the sunny-funny, no-holds-barred Clover in her school-centered adventures. Clover navigates story time, art class, lunch, and her beloved recess with a perspective all her own! With a strongly appealing character at its center, kids will be excited to see what Clover’s up to next.

The Jump-Into-Chapter series is designed for kids transitioning from easy-to-reads to chapter books. The books offer longer page counts than readers, but lower word counts than most chapter books.

Featuring longer plotlines told with a spare text, this acclaimed series is specifically styled to strengthen the skill level of emerging independent readers.

Dinosaurs, comics, and outer space—together at last!

Here’s a two-books-in-one package for fans of cartoons, dinosaurs, and hilarity. This new, paperback Balloon Toons format features two comics-style readers that School Library Journal states will appeal to “emerging readers and younger fans of Dav Pilkey’s ‘Captain Underpants’ series.”

“Dinosaurs in Space” introduces the ETDs (Extra-Terrestrial Dinos) and explains how they became galactic.

“Crash Landing” brings six ETDs back to present-day earth and shows their bumbling efforts to repair their spaceship. In all these dino-stories, Pranas Naujokaitis brings wit and warmth to this critically acclaimed comics/early reader series.

Rotten smells, bad advice, and comical creatures: what could be better?

Spend a day in a dubious outer space “medical” practice in “A Day in the Office of Doctor Bugspit.” Dr. Bugspit’s oddball patients, staff, and cases offer the perfect prescription for curing boredom.

In “Adopt a Glurb,” readers will find tips, information, and zany advice on raising a glurb, a funny little monster who yells really loud, eats ten times his body weight daily, and loves unrolling toilet paper.

Elise Gravel is both a graphic designer and accomplished illustrator. She has written and illustrated several books for children in both French and English, including the Blue Apple titles Blast Off with Doodle Tom and Let’s Draw and Doodle Together. Her latest books is a graphic novel, Jessie Elliot is a Big Chicken. Elise lives with her family in Montreal, Canada.

Scribbles and Ink
by Ethan Long

Two artists, two styles, and one book that may not be big enough for the both of them. See, Ink (the mouse) likes things to be clean and precise. Scribbles (the cat) is the opposite. But while there should be plenty of room for each of them to make their art without getting in each other’s way, or on each other’s nerves, THEY CAN’T MANAGE THAT? Numbers
by Elliot Keser

Two matching puzzle cards will each show one object to make a match. For the next two matching puzzle cards, one will show one object and the corresponding card will show two objects. The next two matching puzzle cards will each have two objects. The pattern continues up to ten. This way the child not only grasps how many the number is, but also what numbers come before and after that number.
